Mr. Robert P. Kelley,
Chief, Division of Eastern European Affairs,
Department of State,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

As of possible interest to you, there is enclosed herewith a circular published by the All-American Anti-Imperialist League, which was distributed among workers' organizations for the purpose of gathering a large representation of American workers to the conference which was contemplated to be held by this League on June 18th at Irving Plaza, New York City.

From a very delicate and strictly confidential source the Bureau has been advised that the foreign office of the Soviet Government financed the conference, and it is said that through the Communist delegates who were to attend, it is believed that the Soviet Government would be able to direct the policies of the All-American Anti-Imperialist League.

Very truly yours,

CALL FOR A Conference Against Imperialism and Imperialist War

To All Workers, Organized and Unorganized;
To All Sincere Opponents of Imperialism:

The danger of another world imperialist war on a larger scale than the last is growing more acute daily. The imperialist nations are becoming ever more aggressive in ruthless exploitation and oppression of the two-thirds of humanity under imperialist domination. A new wave of revolt of the subjugated colonial peoples is rising.

The international situation calls for immediate and determined organized action on the part of all who are opposed to imperialism and its wars. In response to this demand for militant struggles against imperialism all over the world, the International League Against Imperialism and For National Independence, in Berlin, has sent out a call to all its sections, and to all organizations and individuals in colonial and imperialist countries. This is a call to a SECOND WORLD CONGRESS AGAINST IMPERIALISM. Representatives from every important liberation movement, every organization fighting imperialism, from every part of the world, will come together in Paris, July 20 to 31, to plan for an intensified fight against imperialism.

In order to elect a widely representative delegation from the United States to participate in the Second World Congress Against Imperialism, the All-America Anti-Imperialist League, United States Section, is calling a CONFERENCE of all organizations and individuals opposed to imperialism, to be held on New York City, on SATURDAY, JUNE 15th, at IRVING PLAZA, 15th Street and Irving Place.

Conference Against Imperialism, at Irving Plaza, New York City, June 15.

There will be a thoroughgoing discussion of all problems connected with American imperialism, and of plans to form a broad popular resistance to the aggressive policies of Wall Street, so that this delegation will go to Paris prepared to present these problems and plans effectively.

There will be two sessions of the Conference, the first at 2 P.M., and the second at 7:30 P.M.

Issues before the Conference:

Solemn declarations, and "pacifist" propaganda cannot hide deliberate militaristic and increasingly imperialistic designs of the Coolidge-Hoover administrations. The adoption of the Kellogg Pact is a "pacifist" camouflage for militarist preparations, and a diplomatic maneuver. It does not involve any real disarmament on the part of the signatory powers. On the contrary, its adoption was almost simultaneous with the passing of the new cruiser bill, the tremendous increase of the military budget, large scale army, navy and air force maneuvers, and the mobilization of the war spirit through all the institutions of the state and the press. This misleading "pacifist" pact gives a free hand to all imperialist powers in the exploitation of their colonies and continuation of colonial wars. It gives pacifist justification to such acts as the invasion of U. S. marines in Nicaragua.

The "good-will" trip of Hoover was a symbol of the increased aggressiveness in the political and financial penetration of Latin America. It brings out clearly the controversy between British and American imperialism, which was responsible for the conflict between Bolivia and Paraguay. The competition between the League of Nations under British influence and the Pan-American Conference for Arbitration, dominated by the U. S., in rushing to "make peace" in this conflict is further evidence of this fundamental and irreconcilable conflict of interests, and of the dominating position of United States imperialism in Latin America.

Parallel with the growth of the aggression and power of American imperialism there is rising a wave of revolutionary unrest in Latin-America, just as there is against British imperialism in India. Evidence of this restlessness under the yoke is seen in the heroic strikes in Colombia and developments in Venezuela and Mexico. Against this unrest the U. S. government is using the instrument of the Pan-American Federation of Labor.

The American Federation of Labor bureaucrats are likewise supporting imperialism both in advocating increased preparations for "national defense" and by patriotic propaganda, as shown for instance at the New Orleans Convention in 1928, when the close alliance of the A. F. of L. with the American Legion was openly demonstrated.

The Socialist parties likewise throughout the world demonstrate their utter lack of purpose to conduct a fight against imperialism and for colonial independence. They reveal openly their cooperation with imperialist policies in enslaving the colonial masses.

Tasks of great urgency have risen out of the policy of the U. S. to utilize the Kuomintang as another instrument in furtherance of its imperialist designs in China. The native, nationalist bourgeoisie, bribed and corrupted by foreign imperialism, has betrayed the revolution, and the various factions are used by American, British and Japanese imperialists. The Nanking government, even with the active support of Wall Street and Washington, has been unable to "unify" China and civil war continues as the foreign imperialists strive to gain the advantage of each other, to exploit the resources and the masses of China.

The struggle of the Negroes of the countries under the domination of the United States, for liberation, is closely connected with the struggle of Negroes in the United States for political, racial and social equality. The vicious propaganda of the superiority of "Nordic" civilization and race has strengthened racial prejudice, not only against the Negroes, but also against immigrant or foreign-born workers, creating divisions among the forces fighting the exploiters and oppressors. This must be overcome. We must unite the foreign-born, the Negroes and native-born Americans, in close co-operation with the masses in Latin-America and other subjugated countries, in a militant organization against American imperialism.

Dear Sir:

The Bureau is in receipt of information from a very delicate and strictly confidential source to the effect that although the Communist Parties of the South American republics especially the Communist Party of the United States, are in charge of the Communist propaganda officially which is being spread in those republics, the responsibility for all this revolutionary propaganda is in the hands of the All-American Anti-Imperialist League.

The anti-American propaganda in the Republic of Honduras consists of the slogan "Fight the Yankee Imperialism." It is stated that there are no special orders for revolutionary activities in the Republic of Honduras, but that there is a "general line" of revolutionary propaganda in all the South American republics and in the "colonies and semi-colonies" of the United States. The revolutionary movement in the Republic of Honduras consists of about five hundred students and workers; but the revolutionary spirit in these South American republics is growing rapidly and some steps to consolidate and unite the real revolutionary movement and the national-independent movements of all these countries into one movement will be taken after the Frankfort Congress of the All-American Anti-Imperialist League.

Dear Mr. Kelley:

The Bureau of Investigation from a strictly confidential source, has received information that the Executive Committee of the Comintern has ordered the Communist Party of the United States and of the other American countries to organize and start a new drive for the All-American Anti-Imperialist League.

The Executive Committee of the Comintern in its instructions has referred to the fact that the League has been inactive for a period of about two years and that many political and economic battles have been fought by the party in the American countries without the support and cooperation of the Anti-Imperialist League. For this reason, the Executive Committee has issued orders for the reorganization of the All-American Anti-Imperialist League in such a manner as to make it a leader in the struggles between the American workers and the Imperialists.

The order for the reorganization of the League was issued during December of 1930. The Central Committee of the Communist Party of the United States immediately called a meeting of its members and decided to issue an invitation to all American countries to send representatives to a conference to be held for the purpose of reorganizing the League.

The Central Committee of the Communist Party of the United States proposes to hold this conference during March of this year in New York City and will attempt to utilize this conference for the purpose of organizing a more workable, united front of all the workers and farmers of the United States and other American countries.

It is reported that the Central Committee has turned over a sum of $15,000 to the Nicaraguan rebels and that this money was furnished to the Central Committee by the International Anti-Imperialist League. It is reported that the I.A.I.L. now has in its possession approximately $1,000,000 for the purpose of financing revolutionary movements through the world. At the present it is reported to be furnishing financial aid and support to the revolutionary leaders in China and India. It is also reported that the I.A.I.L. is now operating independently of the Comintern.

It is further reported that the Executive Committee of the Communist Party has little confidence in Sandino, but are giving him their full cooperation because he is now the only fighting factor in Nicaragua, and the party must wait for further developments until a way can be found to turn the revolutionary struggle, ~~thereas well~~ as in Honduras, into a Communist struggle under another leadership. is quoted as saying, "But as it now stands, the Executive Committee of the Communist Party is giving its full endorsement and cooperation to Sandino."

Further information from this same confidential source is to the effect that "Comrade Antonio Morelo" has been sent by the Executive Committee of the Communist Party to Mexico, where he will confer with a representative of Sandino and a representative of the Honduras revolutionary movement on ways and means of cooperation. Morelo was scheduled to leave for Mexico on April 30, 1931. At the meeting above referred to, () stated, "I will turn over to them $36,000--$20,000 to Sandino and $16,000 to Honduras." Fourteen thousand dollars ($14,000) of this money was raised by the Party, $7,000 by the Anti-Imperialist League and $15,000 came from the International Officers of the Anti-Imperialist League in Berlin.

At the conclusion of, / speech, / the treasurer of the New York branch of the Anti-Imperialist League, asked all those present at the meeting to pledge themselves and their organizations to raise some money immediately. The Young Workers Communist League pledged $300, the Trade Union Unity League, $500, and individual donations amounted to approximately $210.00. The other organizations present did not make any pledges, inasmuch as the representatives felt that they were not in a position to pledge money without the authorization of their organizations.

M.I.D., Office A.O. of S.C.I., W.D., Washington.

SUBJECT: "Libertador", and Request to M.I. Office, Mexico, of February 6, 1927.

1. In connection with the request to obtain information on this association called the "All American Anti-Imperialistic League" and its organ "El Libertador", this office has secured the following from Embassy and Consular reports and from different individuals.

2. The League here referred to affiliates at times with the Communist Party of Mexico, and again with the "League in Behalf of Persecuted Strugglers"; these latter two groups having been mentioned in the press as supporting the Sacco-Vanzetti case.

3. The President of the League in Mexico City is Diego Rivera, a well-known Mexican futurist painter, who entertains radical communist views. Up to December of 1926 Rivera was also editor of "El Libertador". The Secretary of the League is Jalle AxHello, a radical Cuban student and agitator. The head of the editorial section is said to be one Kotschek Pavletich, a Peruvian radical, and who is also stated to be the Chief of the Printing Bureau of the Mexican Department of Education.

4. The board of managers, as far as known, consists of J. Allen Aspatoff, Joaquin Maya and Diaz Silveira. Nothing is known of these except that the two latter named are radical writers. Collaborators in Mexico are Jose Maria Benitez, Baltazar Gremodo, J. Gomez Moreno, Jose D. Pria, L. Flores Pedraza (labor agitator), Samorinanco, Jose Vazquez (lawyer and radical), and Norman Saborda (chief of the Transportation Syndicate and a presumed radical).

5. Among foreign contributors are mentioned: Scott Mearns, Upton Sinclair, J. Freeman, R. W. Dunn, Carlton Beals, Daniel Jones, and James Guinn. The latter-named is now giving lectures at the Summer School of the University of Mexico, principally on Latin-American relations, and from the Mexican and Central American viewpoint.

Letter H. A., Mexico, to Chief, Latin-American Section, Aug. 12/27, 61647. "Libertader".

6. It is reported that the League has been pressed for funds of late, and this may explain its not being unduly active.

Washington, D.C. - 1928 Intergovt meeting.

San Pedro, Calif. — Paul Crouch, the rebel soldier who has just been released from Alcatraz prison, where he served a three-year sentence for "subversive activities" against American imperialism in the Mexican Isthmus, is to begin a nation-wide tour of the United States on the 15th of June, under the auspices of the All-American Anti-Imperialist League.

This tour will be carried out as part of the Hands Off China, Nicaragua, and Mexican campaign which the League is conducting. Intervention by the United States in China has made Crouch feel that he can do no more mortally set upon regaining his freedom than to take up the anti-imperialist work, particularly under the slogan of "Hands Off China".

"While stationed at Honolulu, Hawaii, Crouch says, I found it impossible to not in the traditional way as a good citizen of America interfere there, I could not believe that it was my duty to interfere the demands of our government or freedom from foreign domination. . . . Talking with other soldiers, I soon found out that they also felt that it was their duty with others, decided to organize the Hawaiian Communist League which could fight for the cause of the Hawaiian people, for Hawaiian independence.

"For that 'crime' against imperialism, both Truscott and I were court-martialed, and sentenced to 100 days military prison. Truscott served his sentence and was released about a year ago. I have just gotten out.

"During the long days in prison, a fellow does a good deal of thinking. I determined long ago that as soon as I got out, I would carry the message of the oppressed peoples not only to my former comrades in arms, the American soldiers who are sent to suppress them, but also to the potential soldiers, the great mass of American workers and farmers who make up the raw material for sports and imperialist aggression in the interests of U.S. business. Just as may, when the United States Section of the All American Anti-Imperialist League invited me to go on a tour of 33 cities from California to New York, I jumped at the opportunity and immediately wired my acceptance of the offer."

After meetings in Los Angeles and San Francisco, Paul Crouch will go to Portland, Ore., and from there he will proceed across the states of Washington and Montana, to Minnesota. Coming to Chicago, he will cover Detroit, Cleveland, Buffalo, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, New York, New Haven, Boston, with some smaller cities in between. The meetings are being arranged by negotiation with the "Hands Off China" Committee and other similar bodies which have sprung up almost spontaneously throughout the length and breadth of the country as a protest against the recent imperialist intervention of the United States in China, Nicaragua, and throughout Latin America. Crouch will agitate for the immediate withdrawal of military and naval forces from foreign soil and for the abolition of all unequal treaties, extraterritorial rights, and other spec "privileges which the Americans strength by to wrench from our country."

Coolidge's Veto of the Bill for a Plebiscite on Independence of the Philippine Islands.

(Statement of the Conference for Filipino Independence.)

President Coolidge's veto of the bill for a plebiscite of the Philippine people on the question of Philippine independence must immediately release all those who have the slightest regard for our obligations toward a subject people.

The bill, passed unanimously by both houses of the Philippine legislature, did not provide for independence. It provided merely that the Philippines people be given the right to say whether they wanted independence or not. Governor General Wood vetoed the bill some time ago. It was immediately rejected over his veto. Now President Coolidge answers the clearly expressed aspirations of the Philippine people by his veto which is final.

There can be only one interpretation of this action of the United States Government in this case, which is to intensify American imperialist rule without regard to the wishes of the Philippines.

The reason given by President Coolidge for his veto, other than as a prize hypocrite of world imperialism, he says, first that the question of independence is "an abstract one"; secondly, that according to the bill not all of the people of the Islands of the Philippines would participate in the plebiscite; thirdly, that the question of independence is "not so important" to the Philippines as the economic progress is for them.

Thus we have it all again — the old, familiar language of the complacent imperialist overlords, self-righteous, patronizing, but not yielding an iota.

"Independence is a very appealing word," says the President, in his veto message. "Our people will vote against independence for themselves —"

"...the cat is let out of the bag." It is admitted that we can not have a plebiscite on the question of independence in the Philippines because the people of the Philippines would vote the wrong way — that is, they would vote for their freedom. Once such a plebiscite was taken, it would be impossible to continue the fiction that the Philippine people do not want their independence. The speech of a president of the United States referring impartially to independence as merely "a very appealing word" indicates that we have developed greatly since 1776.

As to the charge that all the people of the Islands do not participate in the voting, this is plain distortion. All those except the small minority of colonial citizens who are entitled to vote, by not of the United States born here, will participate in the plebiscite according to the bill, which "gentlemen" has valued his sudden solicitude for these poor children in really touching.

"But if the President can not offer honest reasons, he at least presents a variety of reasons. For instance, he says that the Philippine people and their leaders are not generally informed as to the material assistance given the Indians by the United States since their occupation has been so fair & reciprocal of what immediate withdrawal of the United States would mean. Also! we are again unappreciative.

"In view of this lack of understanding continues this conciliatory hypocrisy, a vote on the abstract question of independence would be not only futile but absolutely unfair to them."

Obviously Mr. Coolidge's sense of fairness must be very highly developed indeed!

And then this final paragraph, which states the whole United States policy in the Philippine Islands as not different from that of the British imperialists or any other colonizing system of politico-economic exploitation of the colonies.

"A belligerence on immediate independence would divert the attention of the people towards the pursuit of more political power rather than the essential steps necessary for the maintenance of a stable, well governed community."

If our condemnation of the United States Government policy appears harsh, it is plainly borne out by every word of the president's veto message.

The message will come as a great shock to those who have been accustomed to looking to Washington for "forward steps" on behalf of Philippine independence. It is to be hoped that if it shocks them it will shock them into life.

Now more than ever it is plain that if the Philippine people are to have their independence, it can only be by concerted struggle on the part of the Filipinos themselves and their allies in the United States and elsewhere, not by the grace of our imperialist government.

The Conference for Philippine independence whose preliminary organization was set up some months ago in preparation for a national conference to be held in Washington, D. C. has noted with interest to a whole series of repressive measures looking towards the preservation of American imperialist rule in the Philippines. The libertarian forces still persist although much more and more of the most brazen imperialist legislation, but the actual policy is the reverse of libertarian.

"I call upon all who believe in the cause of the independence of the Philippines to stand up and fight for it. Pack our local cars and go 'n' the various cities to renew the big and support of the movement for Philippine independence. Although the holding of our conference at Washington has been postponed, we believe that the need for holding it is greater than ever. It is necessary to use every means to expose the government policy in the Philippines and to call for resistance against it.

If you stand for Philippine independence, send a telegram to President Coolidge. If you are a trade unionist, take the matter up in your local union and try to secure the protest.

Let us have your moral and financial support for renewed, and redoubled propaganda for Philippine independence.

Let us answer the president's veto with our renewed demand for immediate, complete, and absolute independence for the Philippines.

International Assn. of Oppressed Peoples,
National Workmen
Canton, China.

Dear Comrades:

We are much interested in your letter and information concerning the formation of the International Association of Oppressed Peoples. The organization is timely - in fact, it has been the long delayed - and corresponds to the direct needs of all those working for liberation throughout the world.

Imperialism is the greatest scourge of liberty in the world today. Imperialism must be uprooted if the peoples of the earth are to enjoy a free development.

The All-America Anti-Imperialist League has national sections in Chile, Argentina, Mexico, Colombia, Ecuador, Brazil and the United States, and wholeheartedly endorses the purposes of your organization and hereby applies for affiliation. Our League is a united front body taking in all elements willing to struggle in the struggle against American imperialism. In the Latin American countries it includes students', peasant workers' and other organizations', and political parties. In the United States it is based primarily on the Workers' (Communist) Party as the ally of the oppressed peoples of the Americas.

At the present time we are engaged in preparation for the conference of colonial and semi-colonial peoples to be held under the auspices of the International Workers Assn at Antwerp, Belgium. We have been carrying out considerable activity against American imperialism in Cuba, Mexico and the islands of the Caribbean. It is not too much to say that the League has become, in the one short year of its existence, one of the major factors in the struggle in these countries. We publish a news service regularly twice a week in English and in Spanish (from our Chicago and

724.07

New York office respectively) and we have a monthly Spanish-language organ sent out from the Mexican Headquarters and under the direct editorship of the Mexican Section of the League. The central direction, however, remains here.

I am sending you a copy of "El Libertador," the Spanish language organ of the League, under separate cover.

We should be pleased to receive further detailed information in regard to your association, and especially regarding what is expected of affiliated organizations.

Fatherly yours,

MANUEL OCAMOS,

An analysis of the "bad failure" by a Communist.

In closing the various labor union headquarters in Canton the police seized certain documents relating in one way or another to the Communist uprising of December 11th, among which was one that details seven reasons why the attempt was a failure. It was undoubtedly written by one of the Chinese Communist leaders and substantiates many of the statements made in this report above mentioned.

"(1) Almost all the Communist leaders who headed the coup were men of letters, and not one of them was a leader of the laboring class, with the result that during the coup it was found out that these alleged leaders were hopelessly in need of direction. Moreover, when the coup was at its most critical stage, none of the Communist leaders remained in their presence of mind, and the direction of all within in the city was most confused. This will serve to teach the Communist Party in China the lesson that henceforth they will have to choose at least a few leaders from among the laborers, men with ability and the experience to be at the head of any future uprising.

"(2) Some time ago, before the coup was effected, it had been arranged that the Party should concentrate its work in the stirring up of the whole mass of the people. That is, first to call a general strike of all the laborers in Canton, which would be followed by the uprising of the Communist armed forces. But when the coup was started, the leaders completely lost their heads, paying attention only to the securing of the positions of the troops, and the pre-arranged general strike was never called. This sudden change of mind among the leaders shows the lack of determination and direction among the latter class, and make the Communists ridiculous and a mere military organization. The power and strength of the mass of people has not been levered, and though part of the people in the city did rise up to join the Communists, the majority were not affected.

"(3) The long period of White dominance, as a result of the inauguration on the 1st April, 1949, of an anti-Jacobin committee in Canton City, when large numbers of Communists were arrested and labor activities suppressed, was also directly responsible for the inactivity of two existing cities, and the regime as a whole, in uniting the members of our Party during the December coup. Even then, the blame is still on the leaders who failed to win the cooperation of the mass of people, for it has been reported that before and after the coup the leaders did not even attempt to induce any propaganda work to rouse the people and incite to massacre the anti-Communists and to annihilate the properties of the rich. The only saving work they did was the calling of a few meetings and the distribution of a small number of Communist leaflets. But the first leaflet was not a simple proclamation of the Soviet Government and been notably printed or bound. Not one of the members of the Soviet Committee or a former labor leader or a representative of the people. It is no wonder that the mass of people, on the whole, appeared to be unshamed and failed to revolt.

"The experience we gained during the December coup will be able to convince us that in the future we should do more propaganda work, not only among the labor unions, but also among the mass of people, penetrating further into the heart of the latter. Just as you, henceforth, in any of our risings, we should sacrifice more anti-Communist and annihilate more of their property, so as to stir up the people to join us.

"(4) The meagreness of the Communist Forces' Corps, which joined in the coup, was another great cause of the failure. With the exception, perhaps, of the Communist Secret Corps in America and Switzerland who attempted to assist the Red troops in capturing the railway stations, the great bulk of the forces in the other suburbs of Canton showed inactivity during the coup. Few of the farmers in Linchuan actually did take arms or help us in any other ways. The same thing happened in the case of the residents of the other districts of Fucheng. The outcome of this see that the anti-Jacobin troops, which had a numerical advantage over us, succeeded in driving our units out of Canton City without much difficulty.

"(5) The want of military training by the Communist forces constituted a part of the deficiency apparent in the coup.

"There were 1,000 to 2,000 Communist troops, during the whole of the coup, fighting for our cause, but

But the Third Army on the whole lacked training, too organization. The direction of the "Frontline Party" was, however, poor, jealous, from the point of view of its members. This was the result of the "Frontline Party" itself, with the Soviet Government troops. Of course the leaders of our Party were also partly to be blamed for the insufficiency of our troops.

"(6) Another reason for our defeat was that we failed to capture the field of power, namely the "Frontline Party", in enough measure at our front to reorganize it for us; the "Frontline Party" before the war. The majority of the districts situated in Western cities which came into our hands immediately began to fight us. Our volunteers in the "Frontline Party" will certainly return to our borders. In the "Frontline Party" next year, in the future, undoubtedly more and more, the districts will have to be secured.

"(7) The organization of the Soviet Government, which lasted for three days only, played signs of treachery, especially directing of the Communist troops and in the leading of the mass of people. The "Frontline Party" remained in the city for three days, but the "Frontline Party" succeeded in transferring authority into the hands of the "Frontline Party" of anti-Sovietists. Furthermore, during our retreat from the city we even failed to kill the two highest officials of the "Frontline Party" who were condemned and imprisoned in the austere GPU units.

The first need of preparing power among the forces of the bourgeois party, therefore, should be taken. Hereafter, we should spend less time in consolidating power among the labor unions and in the establishment of regional Communist unions inside the labor unions. But, on the other hand, the Communist Party should lose no time in accomplishing more unity inside the Communist Party, laying down laws and rules which all Communists should obey. Another need is that the Party should be made the center and the highest authority of the Communist leaders and organs, and of the people."

A LETTER FROM PROYLAN TURCOS.

Señor Dr. Carlos Leon,
Mexico.

My Distinguished Friend:

On the night of the 3d of April last I handed over to Macedonio Diaz, a messenger sent directly to me by Sandino, and in whom he has the utmost confidence, $740.62 ($90.82 in medicines and other things you told me to get and $660 in cash)- from-the-thousand-dollar draft from MAFUENIC brought me by Lic. Gustavo Machado, and for which my receipt was published in No.17 of "El Libertador".

In accordance with instructions from the General the other $259.33 is deposited in a bank here to be available for getting any other things he may send for.

There were present when I handed over the $740.62 to Macedonio Diaz; Lic. Gustavo Machado, Agent of Mafuenic; Esteban Pavletich, (who signed the receipt for the mail from Sandino, as the messenger couldn't write)- and the Nicaraguans Mirena, Hernandez and Altsimirano, companions of the other two in their trip to Sandino's camp. The said Macedonio Diaz was the guide for the group.

Since that date-the 3d of April- I have heard nothing further directly from Sandino, nor from our friend Gustavo Machado, nor any word of the mail and other things we sent, with the exception of two letters they wrote me before they arrived in camp.

By the time you receive this letter Machado will be with you, according to an item I saw in "El Libertador". When you have talked with him, and read the letter I sent please let MAFUENIC know of the safe delivery of the above mentioned $740.62.

Apparently Sandino is in Northern Nicaragua, and on account of the great distances I have heard nothing from him for the last two months.

Heartiest greetings,

PROYLAN TURCOS.

(Signed) Fred T. Cruse,
Major, G. S.

Note:--As stated in a previous report, a few days after this letter was written a messenger finally came in from Sandino and Turcios has been in fairly regular communication with him since. In addition to the sum mentioned Macario also carried $1000 from "El Machete", making about $3000, as stated in my report.

2. Early in January of 1928 a committee calling itself the "Pro-Sandino Comite", avowedly made up of Nicaraguan elements in this Capital, was organized for the ostensible purpose of collecting funds for the purchase of medicines and medical supplies for the Nicaraguan bandit Agustino Sandino. This organization, if it can be called that, was headed by Mr. Pedro Cépeda, pseudo-Nicaraguan (Literal) Consul in Mexico City. Offices were established at 3-a Balderas Street, No. 24. Informal notices appeared in the press early in February that several benefits would be given in certain theatres to take up collections for the purchase of medical supplies for the "patient army of Sandino in Nicaragua". No greater publicity was given, and up to the middle of February, 816 pesos had been collected here in the Capital, together with a small amount of bandages, cotton and simple drugs for the purpose stated. Small amounts of funds, running into the hundreds of pesos, have since been received from miners in Pachuca, from individuals in Puebla, and from some of the railroad workers in Mexico.

3. Toward the middle of the month of February an organization was formed in the Capital called the "Hands off Nicaragua Society" ("Manos Fuera de Nicaragua"), with these individuals as the Committee:

Secretary General - Jacobo Hurwitz, exiled Peruvian writer and radical;

Treasurer - Prof. Rafael Ríos Medrano, Mexican radical;

Senior Member - Dr. Carlos Zúñiga, exiled Venezuelan, ex-Governor of Caracas, former Professor in Univ. of Caracas;

Senior Member - Prof. Luis G. Monzón, Mexican, ex-Senator from Querétaro.

In turn this Committee managed to link up the support of the following organizations, with the avowed object of making collections of money and medical supplies for the bandit forces of Sandino:

- ✓ Miners' Federation of Jalisco, represented by David Antonio Sigueros, a leader of Communist party in Mexico City, and a backer of ex-Governor Zuno of Jalisco.

4. This association ("Hands Off Nicaragua") has absorbed the earlier Pro-Sandino association, and aside from scattering handbills relative to the alleged Nicaraguan rebellion, has sent Raul Maya de la Torre, exiled Peruvian radical, to lecture in nearby towns, such as Pachuca and Puebla. Ostensibly, as before, such funds as are collected are supposed to be for medical supplies for the bandit Sandino. Details as to how much has been collected, and as to how funds and supplies are forwarded to Nicaragua, are still undetermined. Forwarding money via New York would appear the most logical method, and if Salomon de la Selva, Nicaraguan agitator, is still in New York, he might be a possible forwarding agent. De la Selva left for the United States early in 1927 via Laredo. Doctor Timoteo Baca is not known.

5. This office is not able to confirm that General Brigadier Jose Alvarez, Chief of the Presidential Staff, is or has been in anyway connected with the "Pro-Sandino" or "Hands Off Nicaragua" outfits. As General Alvarez is somewhat given to intrigue, it is not impossible that he may have contributed in some way to these organizations. Whether overtures have been made or not, to any of the military prisoners in Santiago Tlatelolco Prison to join the bandit Sandino are still undetermined. This office is still investigating several possible sources of information on this subject.

6. No apparent interest as far as the press is concerned, appears to have been taken of late in the general subject referred to.

STATEMENT OF JULIO CÉSAR RIVAS, GIVEN THE 21st, APRIL, 1928.

FORMER AGENT OF SANDINO AND NOW IN THE NATIONAL PENITENTIARY
IN MANAGUA, NICARAGUA.

Sandino's correspondents: FORDURAS, Troilan Turcios; SAN SALVADOR, Dr. Jose de Jesus Zamora; SONSENATE, Dr. Ramon Uesada; ANTIGUA, Alberto Garcia; merchant; TAPACHULA, NIAPAS, Jose Calderon, Proprietor of lower house; COATZCOBAL, VERACRUZ, Francisco de la Llave, President of the Federation of Laborers; MEXICO (the Capital), Dr. Pedro Jose Sepeda, Carlos Leon, Jose Allen y Capitan, Leopoldo Garotti, Italian owner of vessels. In Honduras, Scrapio Fernandez y Hernandez, Consul of Colombia, also buys ammunition which is sent to Sandino.

Rivas made four trips to Mexico, the first trip being on his own account. He arrived there from Cuba with the intention of knowing the country.

He made the second trip at the suggestion of Troilan Turcios, who only gave him $25.00 and a "plancha" (metal plate) with which he might secure funds from all the Masonic lodges, as his was a patriotic mission. All the lodges responded; once in Mexico, he was taken by Dr. Sepeda to General Alvarez, Calles' Chief of Staff, who took him in his own car during the night to the Castillo de Chapultepec (Mexico's White House) where he had a conference with Calles. The latter distrusted him, and told him so, whereby Rivas got frightened, for he had seen more than 120 Mexican Generals, officers and soldiers shot.

Turcios gave him 76 letters, which he delivered to the addressees; he returned 17 days after.

On his third trip he was invested with power by Sandino, his credentials were delivered to him by Turcios. Sandino is a Mason, 18 degrees, and is helped by all the Central American and Mexican lodges, with the exception of the Managua Lodge, where they have very good people although some of the Masons write to Sandino informing him of all that goes on in the interior; but he requests that he should not be required to denounce the local Masons, as he has been helped a great deal by them.

On his third trip he received 240 letters from Turcios, to be distributed on the way and in Mexico. Calles received him very cordially, and gave him $5000.00 Mexican Silver, 6 letters and a half dozen good shirts as a present to Sandino. General Alvarez gave him an electric lamp (flashlight) for Sandino, and Sepeda gave him some medicina (medical supplies). Besides he received 316 letters from the various lodges of Mexico and El Salvador; and $9,600.00 Mexican silver from don Francisco de la Llave; $4,35.00 in gold and a letter from Guillermo G. him $200.00 in gold; in Tepachula he received $3,200.00 in silver; in San Salvador $600.00 gold. He turned all this to Durcios; everything but the shirts and the flashlight which his wife brought herself.

On his fourth trip he received money from the Union Antillana, the initials of which form the following name: U.A.A.L.A. The resident of that society is señor Carlos Leon, whom it is said is the leader of the Venezuelan revolution, which expects help from Mexico.

Calles celebrated a treaty ad referendum with Sandino as a representative from Sandino, the principal clauses of which stipulate the following:

Mexico agrees to furnish Sandino 1,000,000 rounds of ammunition by lots so that he can maintain himself fighting until there is not an American left in Nicaragua. When these (the Americans) leave, he (Sandino) will be furnished 5,000 armed men, 5,000 rifles, machine guns, 10 airplanes, 5,000,000 rounds of ammunition, a battery of guns manned by engineers, and 10,000,000 Mexican pesos, in silver; once he is victorious, Mexico agrees to keep him in power.

Sandino agrees not to quit fighting until he has completely driven the Americans out, not to acknowledge the Chamorro-Bryan treaty, to sell Nicaraguan Canal stocks to all the Nations except the United States, and to reserve up to $15,000,000.00 worth of canal stocks for Mexico, not to acknowledge the Moncada-Stimson agreement, and to accept Mexican supervision.

This Treaty was legalized by a Notary, by the name of Medardo Luna y Luarque and never got into Sandino's hands, as neither did the last correspondence, because he was compelled to destroy it and throw it into the water on Ponsoca Bay when he was captured. His wife was bringing it and destroyed it prevent their taking it.

His first trip he made as a road guide from Tepicigalpa to Cifuentes which lies on the border. He was guiding the following persons: Anastasio Luna, Mario Robles and Manuel Rocheverria, all "exidents," and Calixto Garcia, a Honduranian. Rocheverria is now Sandino's second chief. At Cifuentes, Sebastian Hernandez (a) el Cubano, together with Alonso Irias, Alcalde of Jalapa, took charge of the men.

Those in charge of transporting the ammunition from Tepicigalpa are the following persons: Manuel Lopez, as far as Ynli; Manuel Guillen as far as Cifuentes; Jose Idiaguez receives them there and delivers them to Irias in Jalapa. Sometimes the ammunition is taken right out of the San Francisco barracks in Tepicigalpa, late at night.

General Alvarez sends (ships) ammunition from Mexico in Captain Carotti's launch in Yeloz, which enters the Gulf of Fonseca and into the Hacienda El Flor, which is between El Tercisque and Ampalea.

Francisco Martinez Funes buys ammunition in Honduras, and Valles promised to send 10 machine guns on his last trip to Mexico, but he does not know whether they have been sent.

Largo 33.

Sandino is well informed on what goes on in the interior of Nicaragua, and particularly (what goes on) in Managua. The correspondence is carried by some man to Leopisque, and delivers it to a man they call El Cholo Amaya, or to another they call Darnas, who has a launch. They take it to Amatapala and from there it is sent by mail to Tegucigalpa addressed to Dr. Aspira Espana, to Serapio Hernandez y Hernandez and to Juan B. Moncada. Dr. German Castillo is one of those who write very frequently.

Sandino received $2000.00 in gold in three shipments and some printed loose leaf literature, from Costa Rica.

Note: Rivas tells that he did not see the treaty in Mexico, but while en route, as he tore the envelope, which was made of cloth and sealed with wax. Once he read it, he put it in another cloth envelope he obtained in Guatemala, and sealed it with wax, using a Mexican coin as a seal.

He also tells, that Jose Maria Zelaya, the Alcalde, has made use of his wife, promising her her freedom, and that other friend of Zelaya have done it also, that being the reason why he is disappointed with the Liberals. That in order to abuse his wife they secured the complicity of some Liberal Guards, who allowed his wife to leave the jail at night.

He weeps a great deal and appears to be very nervous; and shows some Masonic documents which proves him to be a Mason in the Orient (lodge) of Cuba.

TESTIMONY OF THE 23rd APRIL.

Santos Sequira also carries correspondence from Tegucigalpa to Sandino.

The newspaper man Boals was sent by Dr. J. Jesus Zamora and joined him in San Salvador, to be conducted to Tegucigalpa. He turned over to Boals 138 of the letters he was carrying from Mexico, and he made a package of them which he sealed with wax and an American coin and labeled them "To the American Minister". The letters were delivered to the addressees.

On his last (fourth) trip he delivered to General Horacio Portocarrero a communication from Calles, in which he was informed that he (Calles) would send 2,500 men through Cabo Falso, Honduras, in February 1929, when the Americans leave after the elections. These people will be placed at the order of General Portocarrero himself, and of Generals Julian Irias and Ropolito Rates, Honduranian. Porfirio Tijerino would supervise this also.

According to what Dr. Depada told him, another contingent of 2,500 men under the command of Pives and General Obalvarro will arrive through the Gulf of Fonseca.

Vicente Mejia Colindres received a communication in which the American Minister informed him that on account of his having written a virulent article against the United States in 1911, he would not be recognized by the American Government in case he should be victorious in the elections. For that reason he made a trip to San Pedro de Ulua and with Dr. Jacinto A. Zava decided to reorganize the Moncada Liberal Party, and to send a communication to Sandino offering his help and support in consideration of Sandino's reciprocity. Sandino accepted.

Among Sandino's friends in Granada there is a man by the name of Torres, probably Valeriano.

Among those that write to him more often, besides Dr. German Castillo, there are Juan Ramon Aviles, Augusto J. Salazar, Anastasio Torozza, Francisco Aragon, Jose Maria and Francisco Solaya and J.P. Arroliga. He observed that most of the letters are encouraging letters and informing him that he must keep on without weakening. Few of them give any details.

In Puerto Mexico, Colonel Juan A. Verdorno is Sandino's supplier of provisions.

The CRUM (Mexican Regional Federation of Laborers) the President of which is Julian Ceana, helps Sandino with $25 a month contributed by every member of the organization. The other labor organizations of Mexico contribute with $ 10 cents from each member. Rivas did not carry that money.

In San Salvador, when Rivas passed through there, they had 13 cases of Springfield ammunition, but they were not decided as to whether they would send it to Sandino with Colon Incayo or whether they would give them to Dr. Melendez.

Clauses of the Treaty project which he remembers: 25% of the canal laborers will be Mexicans; 25% will be Japanese. Once the canal is finished each laborer is to receive 50 Hectares on the bank of the canal, the Mexicans and the Japanese in the hills.

Mexico will replace any shipping lost by Sandino.

Comité Central.
Hands Off of Nicaragua!
Activities and aims.

The "Comité Central Manos Fuera de Nicaragua", organized at Mexico City and comprising "La Liga Internacional Contra el Imperialismo y por la Independencia Nacional (Congress of Brussels), the "Socorro Obrero Internacional", the "Unión Centro-Sud-Americana y Antillana" the "Liga Anti-Imperialista de los Americanos" (Comité Continental y Secciones Mexicanas y Nicaragüenses), the "Federación Antilegalista Mexicana", the "Liga Internacional Pro Luchadores Perseguidos," the "Unión Patriótica de Haití", the "Liga International Antifascista" and the "Liga Internacional de los Trabajadores de la Encimbra", has carried on an intensive campaign defining the anti-imperialist consciousness of the Mexican people clearly in favor of the independence of Nicaragua and of recognition of the contest which Sandino is waging as the advance guard of the Latin American Emancipation movement. This campaign has already succeeded in winning to the movement some other countries in which great sympathy is felt for Nicaragua in the resistance it is making against the penetration of Yankee Imperialism.

Having received a communication from Sandino to the effect that he was well supplied with arms and parts for the conquest of the enemy, but lacked medical means and consequently his wounded men were "lying in their tracks like dogs", the Comité Manos Fuera de Nicaragua has concentrated its attention upon the need for sending medical supplies to the heroic defender of the sovereignty of Nicaragua. The first sum collected have made it possible to send $200 to him, and there has been organized a general collection for the 11th and 12th of this month, which have been designated as the Maria Day and Victory Day for Mexico and the United States.

The press of Mexico and of some other countries has cooperated in our campaign and continues to give its cooperation.

Considering the number of organizations which form the Comité Central and the number of those which have expressed their adherence and the cooperation of the press, it may be stated that a single front has really been attained. The public opinion of the world is with our government.

The service of correspondence and of daily, weekly and special bulletins of the general office of the Comité Central has succeeded in covering extensive areas, but the campaign must be carried still further with El Maestro as the official organ.

In giving a few details of the movement we must mention the fact that the first subscription received was that of a laborer who gave the sum of $5.00, which is a genuine sacrifice for a Mexican laborer. A number of other workingmen contributed about the same amount.

The "Union Centro-Sud-Americana y Antillana", the "Federación Anticlerical Mexicana" and the "Liga Antimperialista de la América" have been entirely successful in their efforts on behalf of the Committee. Dr. Carlos Leon, president of the former, and Mra. Dolores Barriga, honorary president of the latter, have given proofs of their anti-imperialist sentiments and of their disinterestedness, of their enthusiasm for great and noble causes.

We here are hoping for considerable assistance from the "Courre Chocor International" which has so effectively given practical aid to the striking British miners, to the anti-imperialist revolution in China, to the Japanese for losses sustained, to the Belgians, Germans, etc.

We are also counting upon the cooperation of the "Liga Internacional contra el Imperialismo" which will assuredly not fail to manifest itself in a practical and effective way.

Taking into consideration the economic conditions of the workers of the United States we are absolutely certain that the anti-imperialistic party of this country will duly contribute to the campaign undertaken with such excellent success.

The list of physicians, pharmacists and nurses, both of Mexico and Central America who have enrolled themselves ready to undertake the trip to Nicaragua to extend their professional services to Sandino's wounded soldiers is a long one.

According to information received, in several countries, particularly in Salvador and Colombia, the list of volunteers who are ready to join Sandino's army is also a long one.

The movement is assuming large proportions so that we are convinced that Hasta Oír of Nicaragua Committees will be organized during this month throughout the continent. A Hasta Oír Nicaragua day will also be established in the other countries for obtaining funds on a large scale.

In order that this great campaign on behalf of Nicaragua may produce all that is expected of it, it is essential that all the work of the countries be properly centralized. Isolated work of each country or of each locality would be another proof of disunity. It is necessary to give proof of our unfeigned solidarity, of the possibility of joint and united labor. It is necessary that the continent show a single front against the powerful and well organized imperialism of Wall Street.

The Comite Central hopes therefore that it will be kept informed of all activities and in view, furthermore, of the direct relations established with Sandino, that any remittance be made through it.

Sandino Situation.

Entire Aspect Changed.

In a previous report I stated that Sandino had not received a dollar of the sums collected for him, and until recently that was so. He was demanding contributions of as little as five dollars everywhere he went.

The situation is radically changed now. During May Turcios received $11,000 from the Communist Party in Mexico. He had been out of communication with Sandino for five weeks, but early this month a messenger came in, and a few days later Turcios sent on $3000 by a man who calls himself Gustavo Morales or Machado. He is a Mexican and is the agent of "El Machete" a Communist paper in Mexico. He made the trip and when he returned brought a complete set of photographs of Sandino's operations at La Lina. They were for Turcios to publish in his paper, but were turned over to me before Turcios saw them and I sent them on to the Marines.

Since then money has been pouring in, and Turcios has sent several messengers on with it. I know in most cases who they are, and all details of the route—as far as the Nicaraguan border, and have reported these details to the Marines and to Gen. Pineda, who is co-operating fully.

Sandino's New Plan.

There is ample evidence that after losing his supplies near Murra, Sandino saw that armed resistance would soon accomplish nothing, and informed Turcios that only money and lots of it, would keep the situation alive. That money is now being sent from Mexico and is actually reaching Sandino. Reliable reports are that it will be used to organize a series of uprisings in the interior with the object of preventing the election being held in October.

Turcios Has No Initiative.

Turcios is purely an agent of the Communists in Mexico and particularly of the Sandino faction of it. He does not receive money from different organizations. Apparently all funds collected for Sandino go to those men reach Tay, "elips, and when one takes the money on, but there is so much activity that it is impossible to keep track of it all.

Radical newspaper men are constantly being sent on to Sandino. They all come via Mexico and have letters from there. No other credentials will do. This activity also started suddenly about three weeks ago.

General.

It is clearly evident that all parties in Nicaragua are playing their own selfish politics, and leaving everything to the Marines. I am convinced from Proylan Turcios' sudden activity and apparent lack of any fear of consequences, that he has been informed that the Nicaraguan Government will not ask for action against him. That being so it seems unreasonable to expect the Government of Honduras to do the dirty work that Nicaragua will not do. Also Mexico should be able to a great extent to stop the aid being given to Sandino. If it cannot be stopped there, there is no reason for expecting it to be stopped here.

Sandino afraid of Treacherous.

About a week ago Martinez received a letter from Sandino in which he desired earnestly that no more messenger men or other couriers be sent to him, and that only the regular messengers be used in communicating with him. He gave as his reason that the messengers had an enormous price on his head and he was afraid of treachery. He added that what he needed was good fighting men, KILLING THEM OWN AND PRACTICALLY WITH THEM.

Anti-Imperialistic League.

Attached are some examples of propaganda sent by this organization to pro-Sandino forces, who is translating them for publication in "El Maestro". The back page is particularly vicious. The contributions collected up to Carries Leon.

Both of these are the address of "El Maestro", an openly Communist paper, of which a late issue, obtained from Martinez, is attached. The marked article publishes a letter from Martinez to the Editor, accounting for some $500 raised from the paper for Sandino during March.

Photographs.

Enclosed are the photographs brought back by Machado from Nicaragua. This is the original set, the Martinez having made copies and returned the originals to me. They are the only real pictures made so far of Sandino's activities, and it is probable that no others will be made, so they are worthy of some care.

For G-2. Line of communication from here to Sandino is wrecked. First that messengers were carrying money became known here and of 8 sent out during the month
7 disappeared or were killed before reaching Nicaraguan border. Letter most probably is only 3 were taking money and one of them got through and delivered $6,000.
Sandino can still communicate with Turcios but Turcios will probably not be able get through any more messengers
